ТЕКСТ MY DAY OFF

Last Sunday I went to see my grandmother. She lives in a nice house about thirty kilometers from Moscow. The house is not very big but very comfortable. It stands a little way back from the road and has a big garden round it. My grandmother often goes to Moscow by electric train or by bus.

Granny came forward to meet me with a smile. I said, "How do you do?" to her and we entered the dining-room, sat down in arm-chairs and talked a little. Soon Granny went into the kitchen. Then she returned to the dining - room and said, "Dinner is ready".

We sat down to dinner. When dinner was over, I helped Granny to clear away the dishes from dinner table, took them to the kitchen and washed them up. I have some friends in the country. So after dinner I went to the woods to walk and ski with them. We had a good time. When I returned we had coffee, talked, listened to the news on the wireless and watched TV. At about eleven o'clock I was tired and sleepy and went to bed.

On Monday I got up at half past six, washed, dressed, had breakfast and went to my technical school.
